The youngster worked brilliantly in sth contests, holding the game and aggressive Indian attack well in hand there both Cullop and Keating were ounded with vim, vigor, vehemence and virility—not to say violence. Tris speaker led the hostile attack with three singles and a double out of seven times up, a collection of base hits that lifts him well around the 390 mark.

Another able-bodied Son of Swat who had a balky day was Ray Caldwell. Ray was sent into each battle as a pinch hitter, and his response was a timely double in the first game and a single in the second. Which more than evened up for his fanning act on Monday.
